4. Official voter registration documents.
5. Official document issued by a governmental agency that can be used by the department to prove residency.
6. Rental or lease agreement with the signature of the owner/landlord and the tenant/resident.
7. Deed or title to residential real property.
8. Mortgage bill.
9. Filing of homeowner's property tax exemption or homestead exemption certificate.
10. Medical document.
11. Employment document.
12. Insurance document, including medical, dental, vision, life, home, rental, and vehicle.
13. Change of Address Confirmation by the United States Postal Service.
14. Property tax bill or statement.
15. Faith based document that includes the name and address of the issuing organization.
16. Tax return documents.
17. Record of a financial institution.
18. Court documents that list the applicant as a resident outside of California.

PROOF FILING INFORMATION

If required, you may provide a California Insurance Proof Certificate (SR 22) from an insurance company authorized to do business in California. This certificate is acceptable for all California DMV actions requiring proof of financial responsibility.

Proof of financial responsibility may also be met by a $35,000 cash deposit pursuant to CVC §16054.2 or $35,000 surety bond pursuant to CVC §16056. Proof may also be filed by a self-insurer on behalf of an employee to permit driving vehicles owned by the self-insurer within the scope of employment. Bond information must be obtained from a surety bond company authorized in California. For information on the cash deposit or self-insurance, you may call (916) 657-6677, or write:

DMV, Financial Responsibility Unit
PO Box 942884, M/S J237
Sacramento, CA 94284-0884

For a non-California insurance document to be acceptable, you must complete and return a Declaration Regarding Certificate of Insurance for Non-Resident Driver located on form California Proof Requirements for Non-Residents (DL 300). Cash deposits, bonds, and SR 22 forms do not require a declaration. Incomplete declarations and unacceptable insurance documents will not be approved and will be returned. If your insurance is canceled before California's proof filing requirement has ended, your driving privilege can be suspended until a new insurance certificate and declaration has been received and approved.
