The Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) will issue certificates of satisfactory completion forms if the private secondary school meets the following requirements:

1. Provide DMV a current copy of the private school affidavit (PSA) or statement on file with the California Department of Education in compliance with §33190 of the California Education Code.
2. The private secondary school shall utilize the DMV's driver education lesson plan (curriculum) located at www.dmv.ca.gov/forms/ol/ol236.pdf.

OR

3. After reviewing the entire DMV curriculum located at http://www.dmv.ca.gov/forms/ol/ol236.pdf, the private secondary school certifies to the DMV using this form, DL 396B, stating that the curriculum used by the school is educationally equivalent to the DMV curriculum.

NOTE: All certificates issued to a private school by the DMV shall remain under the exclusive control of that school. A school shall only issue a certificate to a student who attends the private school full time during the day, and has successfully completed a driver education course offered by that school.

The signatory must be the owner, officer, administrator or principal of the school. An instructor, secretary or representative is not an authorized signatory.

I certify (or declare) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
