DMV'S LANGUAGE SERVICES POLICY

In accordance with the requirements of the Dymally-Alatorre Bilingual Services Act, DMV is fully committed to providing equal access to departmental programs and services to all persons, including those who are limited English proficient (LEP) or non-English speaking. All departmental programs shall deliver services in ways that recognize individual differences and are sensitive to cultural differences. Dependent on individual needs, effective communication with customers who are LEP or non-English speaking shall be achieved through the use of bilingual staff, translated written materials, and/or contracted interpreter/translation services.

PRIVACY NOTICE ON COLLECTION

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES LANGUAGE ACCESS COMPLAINT PROCESS

If you think DMV has not adequately addressed your request for translated materials or interpreter services, you may file a complaint for lack of adequate access to your language against DMV with the California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) at (866) 889-3278. This telephone number will connect you to a voice recorder where you may leave a message explaining the details of the complaint. The Bilingual Services Program will follow-up for resolution with DMV. These voice recordings contain instructions in the following languages: English, Armenian, Arabic, Cantonese, Farsi, Japanese, Korean, Mandarin, Punjabi, Russian, Spanish, Tagalog, and Vietnamese. For assistance outside of these languages, contact CalHR's Bilingual Services Program at (916) 324-0970.
